DEPARTURE OF THE PRESIDENT AND HIS FAMILY.—The President and Mrs. Gar-field left in a special car of the limited ex-press of the Baltimore and Potomac Rail-road at 930 o'clock this morning for Long Branch. They were accompanied by Miss Mollie Garfield, Master Irvin Garfield, Mas-Mollie Garfield, Master Irvin Garfield, Master Abram Garfield, Col. Rockwell, and Dr. and Mrs. Boynton. Civilizing the Indians.

CARLISLE, PA., June 18.—Twenty-five Indian girls and boys from the Carlisle training school left this morning for the Delaware valley, Buck's County, to be placed on farms, mostly among the Friends, during vacation. Twenty more left for summer houses and farmhouses near Ricombauty. Others find places in the summer houses and Bloomsburg. Others find places in the Cumberland valley. In all, over a hundred are to be given the advantages of farm life and labor among the whites, which proves to be one of the best civilizers yet.

Monticello, N. Y., June 18.—A verdict of murder in the second degree was rendered in the Gerhardt murder case to-day. The prisoner was sentenced to the penitentiary for life at hard labor. The verdict gives satisfaction, the popular feeling being very bitter against Gerhardt.

rious Road Agents Captured—A Variety Actor Shot.

Denver, Col., June 18.—A Tribuoc's Kokomo special says: "Yesterday afternoon one Higgings, a well-known desperado, and Phil. Foote, ex-marshal of Kokomo, being intoxicated, began firing revolvers at random. Shortly thereafter, meeting Mayor Doneaster, of Racene, Higgings fired at him, the shot just grazing his head. Polleeman Brown ordered them to be quiet, and was shot and dangerously wounded by Higgings. The desperadoes then fled to Racene, a small village in the suburbs of Kokomo, and prepared for resistance. The marshal and posec pursued, and after wounding Higgings in the face, captured him and Foote. They were taken to Leadville to prevent citizens were taken to Leadville to prevent citizens from lynching them. There was much ex-citement over the affair."

A News special says: John O. Hara de-liberately shot a Swede named Isaacson, at Park City a day or two ago since. The vic-tim, it is said, will die. The murderer es-the others.

On his return McComb was in a rage, and re-gardless of the children, fired twice, one ball striking McDonald in the head. McComb has been active in politics, laving been a prominent candidate for lieutenant-governor and mayor, and last spring was before the people as a nominee for city treasurer."

Regatta on the Schuylkill.

Regatta on the Schuytkill.

Philadelphia, June 18.-A regatta, which is attracting much attention, takes place on the Schuytkill this afternoon, the first race beginning at 2:30, and another set of races so arranged that there is to be a start every half-hour up to 6 p. m. Large crowds are in attendance along the river.

The six-oared barge contest will be confined to clubs rowing in working barges. A protest having been filed by the Pennsylvania and Vesper crews against the introduction of racing barges by the college men, and it having been decided by a vote of five to four of the may board, which met last night in the Colonado hotel, that such barges should not be allowed to start in the regatta to-day, the eight-oared shell race between the College and Crescent clubs has been declared off, and Crescent clubs has been declared off, the latter declining to row their five hundred-pound boat in competition with that of the College Club, which only weighs about half that amount.

The Treasury Investigation. New York, June 18.—Five steamers left this port for Europe to-day. All go crowded with American passengers and loaded with ury building, heretofore held by Mr. O. L. Pitney, as upon full consideration of the

Mr. Pitney's services cease from this date. Mr. Pitney's services cease from this date. The duties of the office will hereafter be performed under the immediate direction of the chief clerk of the Treasury Department, as provided by sections 235, 240 and 241 Revised Statutes. Mr. J. D. Power has 241 Revised Statutes. Mr. J. D. Power has always acted as custodian in the absence of Mr. Pitney. By direction of the Secre-tary, Chief Clerk Power is preparing detailed regulations for the future management of the business of that office. Their preparation will require several days. It is said that one item of office. Their preparation will require several days. It is said that one item of expense in the custodian's account which somewhat astonished the investigators was for a dozen overcoats purchased as desk-covers. Another was of forty boxes of candles presented in a lunch bill. Still another was of $2,000 for waste paper, and so they run. It is doubtful whether any of these expenditures can be recovered, but after this shaking up it may be depended upon that no such items will be charged to the Government for some time to come. Other removals are expected to follow Pitney's as fast as suspicious of complicity in the lar-

Secretary Windom to-day stated that there was nothing whatever in the report of the Treasury investigating committee that could be construed into a reflection on Mr. Cobaugh, captain of the Watch. Chief Clerk Power has prepared a plan for the reconstruction of the custodian's office. The old plan of assorting waste paper, of which Mr. Stephon D. Skeen was in charge, and under which six females were employed, has been discontinued and the force dismissed. Hereafter persons buying the waste-paper will have to pay for its assorting in the custodian's office, has been fully vindicated by the report of the committee and Secretary Windom to-day stated that there in the custodian's office, has been fully vindicated by the report of the committee and will, it is understood, receive a promotion.

One of the fruits of the recent investigation is the publication of an advertisement inviting proposals for supplies to the Treaztry Department. It will thus be seen that the department proposes to invite full and free competition in such matters in the future. The statement that the department proposes to invite 1011 and free competition in such matters in the future. The statement that the Secretary of the Treasury had approved the report of the committee recommending that the curpet contracts be awarded to W. B. Moses and C. W. Hayes was premature. The Secretary has not yet acted on the re-port. There were no further changes in the custediaries office to day. It is now that custodian's office to-day. It is more than probable that the duties heretofore devolving on the custodian will be trans-ferred to the Supervising Architect. The chief clerk is said to favor such action. It will probably be done on Monday.

An adjourned meeting of the alumni association of Georgetown University will be held at Gonzaga Hall, F street near Ninth, on Monday next. A full attendance of the graduates of the university is expected.
